AROUND CAMPUS

Political Economy and Limits of Crisis Insurance

The Department of Economics, Finance, and Legal Studies will present Dr. Roger Congleton, BB&T Professor of Economics at West Virginia University, at 9:30 a.m. Monday, April 2, in Dillard 175. Congleton will present “On the political economy and limits of crisis insurance: the case of the 2008-11 bailouts.” The event is sponsored by the Charles G. Koch Foundation. Admission is free. For more information, call ext. 4379.

Prof Edwards Discussions in Politics: Service and Citizenship

In memory of longtime faculty member Dr. Michael Flavin, the Prof Edwards Discussions in Politics Series will present a special roundtable discussion on the importance of service and active citizenship in a functioning democracy. Join special guests Congressman Mac Thornberry, Mayor Glenn Barham, and former Texas Representative David Farabee at 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 3, in Akin Auditorium. This program will give participants the opportunity to gain firsthand understanding of the political world as well as the importance of involvement in a democratic society. For more information, call ext. 4376.

MSU Career and Summer Employment Expo
The Career Management Center will present the Spring 2012 MSU Career and Summer Employment Expo from 3:30-6 p.m. Tuesday, April 10, in the Clark Student Center. Students and alumni seeking full-time professional positions, internships, and part-time employment are encouraged to attend. For more information, call ext. 4473.

How to Get Fired
The Career Management Center and Student Success Series will present Jeff Havens at 6 p.m. Tuesday, April 10, in CSC Shawnee. Havens blends satire and professional content in a fun and informative way. For more information, call ext. 4473.

MSU’s Best Friend
MSU has joined with the Humane Society of Wichita County for MSU’s Best Friend as this semester’s community service partnership. This program will offer students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to spend time nurturing the animals at the Humane Society. In addition, participants will be given the opportunity to learn how to properly train a dog. The program will be from 1-4 p.m. Thursdays during the month of April with the exception of April 5 in observance of Easter break. Transportation will be provided for those interested; participants should meet as the CSC bookstore entrance at 12:45 p.m. In the event of inclement weather, the program will be cancelled for that particular day. For more information, contact Dominique Calhoun at ext. 4500.

The Shape of Things
The Department of Theatre will present The Shape of Things at 7:30 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, April 12-14, and at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, April 15, in Bea Wood Studio. The life of timid, awkward Adam transforms dramatically when he becomes romantically involved with fiery, outspoken Evelyn, a graduate student in art. As their relationship develops, so does Evelyn’s thesis project, an instrument for seduction and manipulation. Admission is free to MSU students, faculty, and staff with I.D. For more information call the Publicity Office at ext. 4399 or the Box Office at ext. 4393.

Health Fair: Put Prevention into Practice
The College of Health Sciences and Human Services will sponsor the 12th Annual Community Health Fair from 9 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday, April 13, at the Museum of Art at MSU. With the theme “Put Prevention into Practice,” the fair will feature health screenings and activities that teach health promotion and disease and injury prevention. For more information, call ext. 4048.

Radio Therapy: Benefit Concert
A benefit concert will be held from 7 p.m.- midnight Friday, April 13, at the Neon Spur. All proceeds will benefit the MSU Relay for Life Campaign. Bands include Francesco Electronic DJ, To Make Amends, The CSO Band, TC Frambo + The Copperheads, Shantell, and Dr. Phil Good and the Let’s Get it Ons. Must be 18 years old to attend. Wristband tickets will be on sale for $7 at the MSU Clark Student Center Information Desk until April 9. Tickets at the door will be $10. For more information, call Liz Minden at ext. 4398 or liz.minden@mwsu.edu.

Great Day of Service
The fifth annual Great Day of Service will begin at 8 a.m. Saturday, April 14, in Comanche Suites. Last year, GDS sent 700 student, faculty, and staff volunteers into the community for 2,100 hours of service. To sign up for this year’s event, visit http://students.mwsu.edu/greatdayof-service/. In addition A.C.E.I. will be collecting children’s books for the United Way through April 16. Donation boxes are located in the CSC and Ferguson building. Also, remember to use the orange recycle bins located around campus. For more information, email Candice Fulton at gds@mwsu.edu.

THANK YOU
Thank you all for the support, cards, flowers, prayers, and sympathy for the death of my mother, JoAnn Nelson. Unfortunately, she left behind two precious, 3-year-old cats. One is a brown striped tabby, and one is a black and white tuxedo cat. They need a good home without small children, preferably together. They are both loving and still playful.
