Moffett Library Workshop: Don't Be a Cheater

Moffett Library will present “Don’t be a cheater – avoiding plagiarism in writing research.” Lower grades, failing class, or university expulsion are all possible consequences of plagiarism; this workshop will provide techniques to avoid plagiarism, a serious error in writing those first papers. The one-hour workshop will be presented at 2 p.m. Wednesday, March 21, and again at 3 p.m. Thursday, March 22, in Moffett 212A. For more information, contact Allison Breen at ext. 4171.

Rogue Two Concert

The Department of Music will present Rogue Two in concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 22, in Akin Auditorium. Rogue Two is a chamber music duo made up of assistant professors of music Andrew J. Allen on saxophone and Gordon Hicken on percussion. The recital will celebrate the release of their first album, Step Inside: New American Music for Saxophone and Percussion. Admission is free. For more information, call ext. 4267.

Mustangs Rally

MSU invites prospective students, parents, and guests to visit the campus and experience college life Saturday, March 24. Guests will have the opportunity to tour the campus; talk to faculty, coaches, and current students; check out housing facilities; meet with MSU Admissions; learn about courses and majors offered; and talk with Financial Aid. For more information, call ext. 4334.

Openning Reception: Flatbed Press

The Wichita Falls Museum of Art at MSU Texas will host an opening reception for “Flatbed Press: Proof and Processes” from 6-8 p.m. Thursday, March 22. The reception is rescheduled from February 22, and the exhibition is already open to the public. These original prints demonstrate the nature of printmaking processes and celebrate the 25th anniversary of the Flatbed Press of Austin. The exhibit is funded by a grant from the Texas Commission on the Arts and will be on display through May 5. For more information, contact the museum at ext. 8900.
